

Train for the Plant You Operate, Not for the Classroom

What If You Could...

Teach your people the way they actually work... without tripping a live plant!
 Reduce your financial & safety exposure with training that really works!
 Upskill new & existing resources in just MONTHS, rather than years!
 Close the gap between safety, profitability, & your workforce!

The Performance Learning Platform (PLP) is a mobile “plant on wheels” built for industrial users to solve the widening gap between plant performance, safety, and human reliability. By bringing instructor-led and hands-on learning to your doorstep, training plans and system configurations can be customized to tailor your exact needs and match your process.

Real Equipment. Real Processes. Real Failure Modes. Real Results!

- A training platform emulating a real-word processing facility with real-world problems
- Valves, instruments, control systems, HMI, rotating equipment, switches, relays, etc.
- Handheld analyzers for device calibration, commissioning, & configuration
- Instructor-led classroom sessions with manuals, live workshops, & evaluations
- Scripted scenarios to emulate trips, failures, PMs, troubleshooting, & diagnostics
- Self-guided modules for hands-on activities to reinforce skills & create muscle memory
